She Will Speak on a Panel with Other Local Elected Officials

Milwaukee, WI – Milwaukee County Supervisor Marina Dimitrijevic will participate in a panel discussion with State Senator Lena Taylor and School Board Director Jennifer Morales at the Wisconsin Women=Prosperity Summit in Milwaukee. The event will take place on Saturday, October 22nd, from 8:00am-4:00pm at the Wisconsin African American Women's Center – 3020 W. Vliet Street.

This summit is a continuation of the WW=P event held in Madison in March of 2005. Lieutenant Governor Barbara Lawton will deliver the keynote address. One of the major goal's of the WW=P Milwaukee Summit is to encourage women to run for the Milwaukee Common Council because currently there is not a woman among its members. The Summit will also address: Economic Sufficiency; Health, Safety & Well-Being; Educational Achievement; and Leadership & Political Participation.

"I am honored to participate in this panel discussion. The Wisconsin Women=Prosperity Event in Milwaukee will provide a much-needed forum for addressing the many aspects of local women's lives that need improvement. This proactive approach gives me much hope that Wisconsin will become a better place for women to succeed," said Supervisor Dimitrijevic.
